

ENGLISH LANGUAGE SKILLS AND CERTIFICATES

Applicants for English-language bachelor's and master's degree programs at the FH Kufstein Tirol need to submit evidence that their English language proficiency meets the admission requirements at level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

Exception: Citizens from the USA, Canada, UK, Ireland, Australia and New Zealand

We accept the following internationally recognized English language certificates at CEFR level B2:

- TOEFL iBT (Minimum score: 72)
- IELTS Academic (Minimum score: 6.0)
- PTE Academic (Minimum score: 60)
- Cambridge English exams
- LanguageCert

As an alternative to the language certificates listed above, applicants can submit a certificate or an official letter (MOI) from a university/school that clearly demonstrates the language competence at CEFR level B2 or higher.

Certificates from platforms such as Duolingo, Babbel or OLS are not recognized.

In case the proof of English language proficiency is not available at the time of application, it must be submitted via e-mail to bewerbung@fh-kufstein.ac.at by the start of the program at the latest.
